NOTEBOOK

Notebook: Building blocks of discontent

The growing influence of mainland money reminds locals that they have never been in control of their destiny

Microcapitalists lurking in China's midst

Gone are the bad old days in China when "landlord" was a dirty word, and squeezing four families into a flat built for one another of Mao's brilliant ideas

The pursuit of love on LinkedIn

Although the network is keen to promote its professional purpose, its dating potential has not gone unnoticed by its users
